Complaints Procedure

In-House Complaints Procedure

Our aim is to provide a first class service and to do everything we can to ensure you are satisfied – living up to our aim of “impressing every client, every time”. If you feel that we have fallen short of this standard and you wish to complain, we ask that you first telephone the person who has been your contact for the service we are providing to you and explain that you are dissatisfied with an aspect of the service you have received. If you remain unhappy with the way your complaint has been dealt with after speaking to them, then you should set out your complaint in writing to:

Chris Hill
Customer Service Manager
Multi-Let UK Head Office Limited
Foxhall Business Centre
Foxhall Road
Nottingham
NG7 6LN
And/or by email at: chris.hill@multi-let.co.uk

In order to resolve your complaint, we would ask that you include the following information and evidence, if applicable:

- An outline of your complaint explaining why you feel that we have fallen short of our first class service on this occasion
- What you would like us to do to resolve it
- Any specific details that you feel would assist us with resolving your complaint including, but not limited to:
 - Names of the person you have spoken to in connection with the complaint
 - The Multi-Let Office you have been dealing with
 - Time(s) and Date(s) of the incidence(s)
 - Telephone number(s) and or Address(es) you have used to contact us
 - Any written correspondence in connection with your complaint
 - Any other document in support of your complaint

On receipt of a complaint, we will investigate the issue(s) you have raised on your complaint fully and respond to you accordingly.

The timescales for dealing with a complaint are as follows:

- You will receive an acknowledgement of your complaint from us within 3 working days of receipt of your complaint
- Within 10 working days of the acknowledgement, you will receive a full response
- If we are unable to resolve the matter within the 10 working days as stated above, we will provide you with reasons why we could not meet this time frame and provide you with an estimate of when a full response will be received
- After our final written response, we may deem the complaint closed. If we deem the matter closed then we reserve the right not to enter into any further correspondence, however we are members of the Property Redress Scheme and you can take further action.

Property Redress Scheme

If you remain unhappy with the response received from us and have exhausted our complaints procedure, you can contact the Property Redress Scheme to ask them to investigate your complaint. In order to take your complaint to The Property Redress Scheme you must first have carried out the following:

- You have waited 8 weeks from the date of your written complaint to us for a response; and
- It is still within 6 months from the our last communication with you regarding this complaint

The Property Redress Scheme is a government approved Redress Scheme who resolves complaints between Members and their consumers. The complainant must have exhausted the Member's internal complaints procedure and remain dissatisfied with the Member's response. The Property Redress Scheme is free to use for the complainant and further information and guidance on how to resolve complaints is available via their website.

In order to make a complaint, please contact the Property Redress Scheme directly or alternatively, visit their website and fill out a Complaints Form. The Property Redress Scheme contact details are as follows and our Membership Number is PRS007847:
